Election of New Pastoral Council

There will be elections for new Parish Pastoral Councils in every parish throughout the diocese over the coming weeks. We hope to be dividing Kilsherdany and Drung into seven groups of townlands and the people from those seven areas will be asked to vote for one man and one woman from those areas. You will be getting voting slips within the next couple weeks.

New Pastoral Area

From 1st September 2016, the parish of Kilsherdany and Drung will be part of a new Pastoral Area along with the parishes of Drumgoon and Laragh. It is hoped that the priests and people of these three parishes will co-operate with one another and come up with strategies to cope with the ageing priests and declining number of priests and the other changes affecting our parishes.
