Clocks Change

Don't forget! Clocks go back one hour tonight.

Hallow'een

Hallow'een is observed on the night of 31st October. It takes its name from being the eve of the holyday of All Saints on November 1st. It is a feast with its origin in pre-Christian times. In Ireland a festival was held to honor Samhain, the Celtic Lord of Death. Samhain allowed the souls of the dead to return to their homes during the night. Sinful souls could be freed for heaven through gifts and sacrifices.
