Safeguarding Sunday

This weekend we mark the fourth Annual Safeguarding Sunday in our diocese. The purpose of Safeguarding Sunday is to create a greater awareness of safeguarding in our parishes and also to highlight the contribution of people to ensure that our diocesan Safeguarding child and vulnerable adult policies are adhered to. Please bring home with you a copy of our Safeguarding Newsletter.

The ladies are hosting a memorial tournament on Sat 28th September in memory of their dear team mate Karen Jackson which is starting at 10.30am in Drung GFC grounds. That night they are having a night of celebrations in Bunnoe Community Centre with games, music, photo displays and a bar starting at 9pm. We encourage all the community to get out and enjoy our weekend of 25 years celebrations!

Crumlin Hospital

Thanks to everyone who supported the recent coffee morning & cake sale in aid of Crumlin's hospital for sick children. Total amount raised was €600. Thanks to all who donated to the Crumlin hospital church gate collection in Bunnoe. The amount was €145.

Lisboduff Parent's Association

Is currently collecting the rugby tokens that are on offer in Aldi when you do a shop. We would appreciate if people from the community would help us out by collecting these tokens as we need 300 tokens to enter the competition to be in with a chance to win some great prizes. These tokens can be dropped in to the school or given to any child/parent of the school. Thanking you in advance.
