Bishop Edward McGennis (1846-1906)

Fr Liam is researching the life of Bishop Edward McGennis who was born in Tullyvin in 1846, the son of Thomas McGennis and Eliza Coyle. He was made Bishop of Kilmore in 1888 and he died in 1906. The McGennis family were building contractors and Fr Liam would welcome any information anyone had on the McGennis family or on Bishop McGennis himself. Fr Liam would like to know what house they lived in? Are there any relatives living locally? Has anyone got information about Bishop McGennis or photographs of him?

Baptisms

If you wish to organize a baptism please contact Fr Yusuf or Fr Liam.

Anniversary Masses

May be booked in the usual way, though there may be a number of Mass Intentions for the each Mass as there is a backlog due to the lockdown.

Envelopes

Thank you to all who handed in their envelope contributions over the past few months. If you can we ask that you bring your contributions up to date. Do not worry if you cannot do so. All collections to be taken up at the church door.

Getting Back To Mass

Please note that the following practices will be in place in order to keep everyone safe and well.

- ❖ Each church will have sanitizer dispensers and appropriate signage in place.
- ❖ There will be no Holy Water in the fonts.
- ❖ All collections will take place in the porch before or after Mass
- ❖ You will collect your own leaflet on the way into Mass and bring it with you at the end of Mass.
- ❖ People must keep physically distant from each other - this means that you will most likely not be able to sit in your normal seat.
- ❖ The front seats will be filled first.
- ❖ Family groups may stay together
- ❖ There will be no sign of peace
- ❖ Ushers will help people as enter the church, as they go forward for Communion and as they leave the church.
- ❖ It is recommended that everyone receive Holy Communion on the hand.
- ❖ Priests and Eucharistic ministers will sanitize their hands before and after distributing Holy Communion and they will wear face masks.
