A Poem by Derek Mahon (1941-2020)

Everything is Going to be All Right

How should I not be glad to contemplate
the clouds clearing beyond the dormer window and a high tide reflected on the ceiling?
There will be dying, there will be dying,
but there is no need to go into that.
The poems flow from the hand unbidden
and the hidden source is the watchful heart.
The sun rises in spite of everything and the far cities are beautiful and bright.
I lie here in a riot of sunlight
watching the day break and the clouds flying.
Everything is going to be all right.

A Prayer For Healing and Hope

God our heavenly Father, grant us the fortitude of Christ your Son to face the Covid-19 pandemic with confidence, patience and hope. Give us the grace of the Holy Spirit to free us from fear and anxiety and help us to look to the future with trust and hope in You.

May the intercession of St Joseph, and Mary the Mother of God, help us and guide us through this difficult time. We ask you Lord to protect us from all harm, protect the vulnerable, bless all health care workers and reward them for their goodness.

Be with us now and keep us now and keep us safe as we look forward in joyful hope to brighter days ahead. Amen

Cold Spell

During the lockdown and the cold spell that we are going through we ask that you be especially vigilant and look out for elderly neighbours, those who live alone and may be feeling isolated and lonely. Just make a phone call or call to their door to make sure that they are warm and have food in the house. Usually all that is needed is a friendly voice and a listening ear.

Update on Webcam

Masses from Drung and Bunnoe churches are streamed on-line on www.churchtv.ie We have had difficulties getting broadband coverage in Kill church area but we are hoping to make progress with this over the coming week or ten days. All going well we could have Mass on-line from Kill church before the end of the month.

Envelopes

Thanks to everyone who dropped in envelopes over the Christmas period. If you can, we ask that you please bring your envelopes up to date. Please note that the weekly collection is made payable to your local church and the dues to the 'priests revenue fund.
