Fr Yusuf

Fr Yusuf will complete his period of quarantine on tomorrow, Monday 8th March, and will be offering his first Mass since his return in Kill on Tuesday next 9th March. It has been a long two weeks for him but we thank him for sticking rigidly to the quarantine and we warmly welcome him back to pastoral ministry in the parish.

Coping With The Lockdown

It is almost one year since the lockdown began and, without doubt, the past twelve months has been a trying and worrying time for everybody. Many people found the past couple months the most difficult time because infections rates were high, the weather was wintry and of the lockdown was dragging on. But there are great signs of hope. The restrictions that have been in place since Christmas have reduced the infections rate greatly and now, with the vaccinations speeding up, we will see those rates decrease even further. But it is important that we continue to adhere to the regulations. They are working and please God, before too long, we will all be able to mix and move freely once more. So keep up the good work and keep up the prayers!
