Kill Old Graveyard

It is hoped over the coming months to begin work on tidying up the old graveyard in Kill. This is an important historic graveyard and it is also the burial place of both Catholic and Church of Ireland parishioners of Kill. We hope to set up a small committee to oversee and plan the work that needs to be carried out on this graveyard. If you would like to volunteer to join this committee please give your name and contact number either to Gerry Brady (086 2254415) or to Fr Liam Kelly (087 9877739) during the coming week. Thank you.

Emmet Jackson

Many of you know already that Emmet Jackson is home from hospital and is progressing well. He still has a long road to go to full recovery. We thank God, for the skill and professionalism of his doctors and nurses both in Dublin and London and for the wonderful progress he has made to date. The Jackson family are very aware of and greatly appreciate all the prayers, the goodwill, and support of people not just in this community but also much farther afield. This support, kindness and prayers has helped them through what has been a very difficult time. May God continue to bless Emmet with good health and may God bless all who supported the family through it all.
