Blessing of Graves

We welcome all who have joined us today for the Blessing of the Graves here in Kill. It is great that we are able to gather again for the first time in three years to remember and pray for our dead in this way. We thank everyone who has tidied up the family grave plots in preparation for today. And we hope that you and your extended family will enjoy the gathering and the meeting up today. We pray that today will bring healing and comfort to all who are grieving the death of a loved one.

Old Cemetery

Back some months ago an inter-church committee was set up to help restore the old and graveyard here in Kill. This committee has been working hard behind the scenes and already much progress has been made on controlling the out of control vegetation. Restoring the graveyard will be a major and ongoing task but our hope is that before too long that it will be safe to enter it and that information about the cemetery and its history will be available both on signage and on line. To do this we will need your ongoing support. Half of our Cemetery Sunday collection will go towards the restoration of the old graveyard - so we ask you to be especially generous in your contribution to the collection today.

Recent Death

You are asked to please pray for Marie Fay, Cortober, whose funeral took place here in Kill on Tuesday last. May she rest in peace.
