Back to School

We wish all pupils and teachers who have returned to school during the past week all the best for the coming school year. We wish especially all those who are starting school at this time and all those who are going to a new school all the best at this time. Change is never easy so we hope that the all settle in quickly and are happy in their new school. We hope that the coming school year will be a time of renewal, growth and blessings for all.

Leaving Certificate Results

We congratulate all our young people who received their Leaving Certificate examination results on this Friday. It is an anxious time for them and for their families. We pray that the Holy Spirit may be with all who received their exam results to bless them and guide them in all the decisions they have to make in the coming weeks.
