Local Information

We wish our neighbouring parish Knockbride the very best of luck this weekend as they take the stage in the Ramor Theatre, Virginia for two nights in their "sold out" variety show. A special mention to our very own Philip Smith and Finuala Duffy who are part of the very talented cast. This show, with their talented and hard working cast and crew have already raised over E12000 for charity and the success of the show is a testament to the dedication shown by the community down through the years. Best wishes and congratulations to all involved.
