Palliative Care Week 2024 Sun 8th - Sat 14th September. Our theme this year is 'You, Me and Palliative Care' and we hope to emphasise the message that palliative care affects us all, and the importance of community in the provision of palliative care services and supports. We are also looking for personal stories of people who have benefitted from palliative care services and/or their carers or family members. We would be very grateful for any information that you feel would help us to share our messages of the benefits to quality of life of those who need palliative care services, their carers and families. www.aiihpc.org | www.thepalliativehub.com
